

BROKEN FENCES

(Petersen / Simmonds. SOCAN)

Congratulations you're a star Spend your pay cheque at the bar
The only question that I have on my mind
When will you come to your senses
Those bridges burning that you're leaving behind
Don't paint a pretty picture of a perfect romance
I don't wanna hear no more words of sweet persuasion one day you're gonna wonder why when you're heading down the road you're gonna ask me baby oh baby what went wrong what good will that do once you're gone you should have realised a long time ago could be an unhappy ending Telling me lies that I can smell on your clothes Before I shed another tear Let me make it very clear Instead of just drinking beer
With all your super heroes
You could be looking like a star
In your very own backyard working on mending
Broken fences
Broken fences

(inst. Break)

Those bridges burning that you're leaving behind
Don't paint a pretty picture of a perfect romance
I don't wanna hear no more words of sweet persuasion
Now the wheels are off the track
And the bloom is off the rose

Broken fences
Broken fences
