

B.C.M.A: Song of the Year (Bootleg-1987).

ORDINARY PEOPLE

(Irving / Simmonds. SOCAN)

See that bullfrog on the hollow stump he's about to jump down into the river Gonna land on that big lily pad and then settle back floating on the water Just contemplating time as it goes by
Busy counting all the stars in the sky
Oh lawdy, lawdy what a lovely day
and a heavenly night for love
with a big bright moon up above

Ordinary people so in love
Ordinary people living simple lives
Ordinary people so in love
Ordinary people just like you and i.

Hear the humming of the birds and bees
In the summer breeze it's honeysuckle weather
If the clouds come and it looks like rain
Then we won't complain as long as we're together
Just contemplating time as it goes by
Busy counting all the stars in the sky
Oh lawdy, lawdy what a lovely day
and a heavenly night for love
with a big bright moon up above

Ordinary people so in love
Ordinary people living simple lives
Ordinary people so in love
Ordinary people just like you and i.

Ordinary people so in love.
