

THE PRISON BREAK DUOLOGUE (Rap circa '68).

Hey Stan wanna take a van to Japan we can stash all the hash at the place where we crash at some friends that I know with a plan we could make the whole thing mesh throw a bash with the cash from the hash that we sell down in Tokyo

Wa-wa-wa-wa-wait man they're doing Kava-kava down in Java so I'd rather we go farther down the coast skip the roast from the pigs get the most for our brain though it may sound insane to catch a plane into Java well I'd rather

Okay Stan but first
We have to bust out of this can Eh?
How?
Hmmm.....?

See that fan in the room if it's stuck on a broom we could cut up a sack tie the pack to our back and propel us away to the moon

Uhhh. No man
I think I'm gonna stay where I am in the slam that's a much safer plan It's not safe on the lam with a loon

C'mon dude
Are you saying I'm insane to wanna scam?
Wait and see when I'm free who's well off - you or me?
I'll be under the stars living high off the land while you're stuck behind bars busy shoveling sand I'll be free and just float while I'm taking a toke from a rock of hashish comprehend?
It's a postcard with greetings I'll send on my way in the van to Japan

Hey wait man! before you go through all that crap again there's a fact you should know and I heard told it so on last night's radio all these doctors agreed what this top shrink believes and I can see that it's true by just looking at you that while prison life can make the mind go hazy hashish can drive a good man crazy Yes it can yes it can Ca-ca-can-ca-ca-can-can.
